About WRIQ

Representing more than 90 Queensland-based organisations ranging from multi-nationals through to small family owned and operated businesses, WRIQ engages in a broad range of state-specific issues of strategic importance to the sustainability and development of the sector.

WRIQ represents all aspects of the sector including major landfills, transfer stations, resource recovery facilities (including advanced manufacturing), sustainable and firming power facilities, and collection services.

For more than a decade, WRIQ has earned a reputation as a leader in sectoral policy development and driving change to improve the operating environment for Queensland's waste management, recycling and resource recovery sectors. Recognised as a non-partisan organisation that works effectively with all levels of government, WRIQ is acknowledged as an influential and respected advocacy group in Queensland.

Virginia Golf Club

Established in 1928, Virginia Golf Club is regarded as one of Queensland's oldest and most time honoured public golf courses.

Virginia really is The Course of Champions. Home to legends such as Greg Norman and Wayne Grady who were both juniors at Virginia along with Australian Amateur Champions Jack Rayner and Andrew Buckle as well as Queensland legend Sommie Mackay.
